

Sharing Corral 2011

APHE is excited to offer you the opportunity to showcase your new and innovative programs or resources at the 2011 APHE National Conference. Please consider applying for the Sharing Corral session.

Attendees will have the opportunity to view the displays during the conference lunch break on Thursday the 24th, and presenters will be situated at their displays at that time.

Thursday, February 24 from 12:15 to 1:45 p.m.

The poster session will highlight:

- 1) Successful programs
- 2) Effective tools that can help humane educators be more productive and efficient
- 3) Honors students from the University highlighting successful projects

Sharing Corral guidelines:

~ Displays should be self-explanatory. This can be achieved through text, images and props as desired.

A table backed by a wall will be provided.

~ Presenters will be scheduled to be at their displays for questions and demonstrations (as needed) at lunch time during this session. (We encourage you to grab a lunch right away and get back to your poster.)

~ Presenters are responsible for bringing all necessary supplies. Blue painter's tape will be available for affixing posters to the walls.

~ Presenters are welcome to share materials relevant to their displays; however, items may not be sold for purchase during the Sharing Corral.

The Sharing Corral is not the place for your brochures, magazines, and other giveaways from your organization—we will have tables set up in the conference area for the placement of those items. The Sharing Corral is the place to share your successful programs, ideas and resources to help others implement similar programs and tools in their own communities.

To participate in the Sharing Corral, you will need to sign-up before the conference. There is a limit of ten participants, so sign up today! E-mail the following information to conference@aphe.org no later than January 30, 2011. Applications will be reviewed as they are received.
